The Ardrossan Information Centre, South Australia's Tourism Awards winner 2022, is a treasure trove of information for visitors. Here, you'll find friendly locals ready to share insider tips, maps, and information about the town's attractions. Whether you're looking for walking trails, local events, or dining recommendations, the information centre is your gateway to making the most of your Ardrossan experience.

Town Pride

The Ardrossan Heritage Museum offers a fascinating journey through time, with exhibits and artifacts that shed light on Ardrossan's maritime heritage, agricultural roots, and early settlers' stories. Whilst in town, you can also take a moment to pause and reflect at Ardrossan's Memorial Garden, created to honour those who sacrificed their lives for our country.

Home away from home

Set amidst tranquil surroundings and offering stunning views of the coastline, the Ardrossan Caravan Park is a haven for all kinds of travellers. From campers, to caravanners and those seeking the creature comforts of home in a self-contained cabin, there's something here for everyone. The new two and three-bedroom villas are beautifully appointed and serve as a comfortable home away from home for families. The park is equipped with a playground, communal kitchens and even crab cooking stations! For those looking for accommodation with catering the Ardrossan Hotel/Motel offers an excellent choice and Blue Manna Waters Apartments provides central, self-catering short-stay accommodation for holiday makers.

Adventure awaits

For families and adventure enthusiasts, Ardrossan has something special in store. The town boasts a brand-new pump track where cyclists of all ages can test their skills and ride for thrills! The Clifftop Playground offers panoramic views of the ocean while providing a safe and fun environment for children to play and explore. And for those keen to stretch the legs, the clifftop walk is a must. Breathe in the salty sea air as you take the walk at your own pace. This coastal path forms part of the Walk the Yorke trail, a continuous walking and cycling trail that encircles the entire Peninsula, so you can walk as far as your heart desires!

Indulge in local delights

Mornings in Ardrossan are a symphony of flavours and aromas, with quaint cafes serving up freshly brewed coffee and mouth-watering delights. Take a leisurely stroll along the vibrant main street, where boutique stores and artisan shops beckon with treasures waiting to be discovered.

As you explore the town, appreciate the eye-catching murals adorning buildings, showcasing the talent and spirit of Ardrossan's artistic community.

Tee off

Golf enthusiasts will find paradise at the Ardrossan Golf Club, where lush fairways and scenic views combine to create an unforgettable golfing experience. Whether you're a seasoned player or a novice looking to improve your swing, the club's well-maintained course and welcoming atmosphere make it a must-visit for golf lovers.

Jetty fun

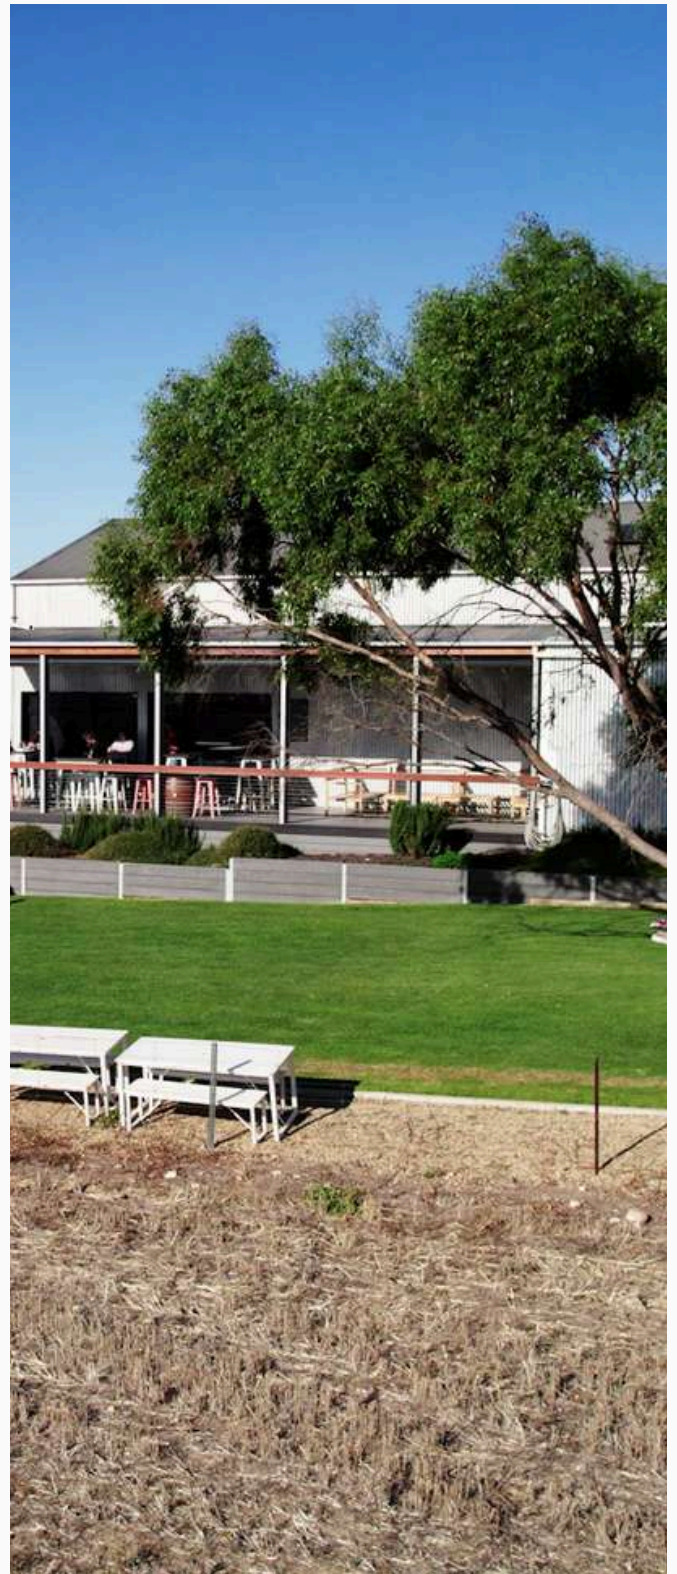

The iconic Ardrossan Jetty beckons with promises of memorable fishing and crabbing adventures. Cast your line into the crystal-clear waters, reel in a catch, or try your hand at crabbing along the jetty's shores. It's a quintessential Ardrossan experience that brings joy to anglers of all ages.

Sip, sip!

Wine connoisseurs shouldn't miss the opportunity to visit Emoyeni Wines, a boutique winery that embodies Ardrossan's passion for quality and craftsmanship. Sample a variety of exquisite wines, from crisp whites to bold reds, and discover the unique flavours that reflect the region's terroir and dedication to winemaking excellence.

If spirits are more your style, take a drive to the family-friendly Sunny Hill Distillery. This cool new addition to the Yorke Peninsula scene is a family-owned and run distillery that offers a genuine crop-to-drop experience!

Join a bookable behind-the-scenes experience to learn about the distilling process, try a tasting paddle or cheese and cocktail offering or just sit back and take in the stunning view as you sip on one of their award-winning spirits and let the kids run free on the expansive lawns.

Ardrossan invites you to embrace life's simple pleasures and create lasting memories with those who matter most. Pack your sense of adventure and let Ardrossan weave its magic upon you.
