

VISITOR ITINERARY

Tiny Tourism Town: 2 days / 1 night

Day 1

- Wine tasting and history: Visit the historic Bleasdale cellar door to discover where the story of the Langhorne Creek wine region began. Established in 1850 by Frank Potts, this historic winery offers a wide range of sparkling, white, red, and fortified wines, as well as local produce platters and behind the scenes tours of the winery, complete with the wooden Old Press built in 1892.
- Wine tasting with a rooftop view: Five minutes from Bleasdale, you'll find the architecturally stunning Kimbolton cellar door. Here you can choose between wine tastings, wine & cheese pairings, kids tasting flights, family experiences and even rooftop tastings – this place truly caters for everyone! With lush garden areas and views across the vineyards, Kimbolton offers a range of traditional and alternative varieties, as well as light meals.
- Lunch: Right next door to Kimbolton, you can sit back on the luscious lawns at The Winehouse while enjoying a delicious lunch, complete with vineyard views. With four boutique wine brands and even a local brewery, there's plenty for the adults to sample while the kids run around.
- Accommodation: The charming Creek Cottage bed & breakfast is ideally located on the main road of the quaint township of Langhorne Creek within easy walking distance to the pub, general store and Alfred Langhorne Park.
- Dinner: A short stroll up the main street, you'll find the historic Bridge Hotel, the perfect place to enjoy a snack or dinner while watching the sun set behind the vineyards.

Day 2

- Breakfast: If you wake up hungry and feel like a morning stroll, the iconic Langhorne Creek General Store makes the best breakfast burgers going around. And did we mention the amazing coffee?
- Wine and gin tasting: A stone's throw from the Creek Cottage, you'll discover the Bremerton Wines cellar door. With award-winning wine, gin and even a cheeky limoncello, this place is sure to tick all your boxes. The kids can play outside with lawn games while the adults taste what's on offer, there are also platters and pizzas available if you're feeling a bit peckish.
- Lunch: If you want to finish the stay in style, Lake Breeze is the place for you. With a wide range of wines, amazing views across the vineyards and a delicious food menu, Lake Breeze has got long lunches written all over it. Enjoy a wine tasting in the charming limestone cellar door, sit back and relax with a glass of wine, savour a meal from the contemporary lunch menu or enjoy a walk around the picturesque grounds.
