

PORT LINCOLN

& SOUTHERN EYRE PENINSULA

The Coast with the Most

Nestled along the pristine shores of the Eyre Peninsula in South Australia, Port Lincoln is a true coastal gem, home to locals that are known as some of the most welcoming in Australia. With its breathtaking landscapes, vibrant cultural scene and thriving seafood industry, this charming town beckons travellers to immerse themselves in its unique blend of relaxation and adventure.

Immersive experiences

Southern Eyre Peninsula's coastline is, put simply, breathtaking. The iconic Coffin Bay is home to an experience like no other, where visitors get to tour a remote oyster farm on a purpose-built boat, and then wade through crystal clear waters to explore how oysters are farmed. Along the way learn how to shuck like a pro and top it off by indulging in as many oysters as you can throw down on your way back to shore.

For the more adventurous, opportunities to swim with sea lions or go shark cage diving with Calypso Star Charters add an exciting dimension to the coastal experience. The thrill of encountering marine life up close creates memories that linger long after the holiday is over.

"A culinary journey like no other"

Food, glorious food!

Port Lincoln proudly wears the title of the Seafood Capital of Australia, and rightfully so. As night falls, fishing boats return with their bountiful harvests and the waterfront becomes a hive of activity. This sets the stage for a culinary journey like no other. World famous tuna, kingfish and delicious oysters are the pick of locals and visitors alike and the marina is dotted with seafood eateries to delight even the most discerning foodie. Couples seeking a romantic dinner with panoramic views will be spoilt for choice!

But it's not all about the seafood... Port Lincoln is also home to other unique culinary experiences. L'Anse French Café & Croissanterie is a charming little cafe serving up French inspired brekky, brunch and lunch every day, alongside fresh handmade award-winning croissants. For locally roasted coffee you can't go past another town's favourite – Boston Bean Coffee Co.

Here's cheers

If you're looking to quench your thirst after a big day of exploring, look no further than West Coast Distilling Co and Jump Ship Brewing, two dynamic establishments that have become integral parts of the region's vibrant beverage scene. Their offerings reflect a commitment to local flavours and a passion for distilling excellence. For world-class wine tasting, a visit to Boston Bay Wines or Peter Teakle Wines Cellar Door should be high on your list!

All establishments share a dedication to authenticity, showcasing the best of Port Lincoln's local ingredients and maritime spirit and making them must-visit destinations for enthusiasts of finely crafted beverages.

It's an experience”*

Retail therapy

If you need some retail therapy whilst on holidays, Port Lincoln doesn't disappoint with an amazing range of shops in town. A local favourite EP Surf will kit you out with some of the coolest surf get-ups, and The Bay Room will give you a fix of eclectic homewares and fashion that you cannot find anywhere else! The Visitor Information Centre is always a good option for souvenirs and gifts, and on days when there's a cruise ship in port, visitors can also enjoy the Hotel Boston Cruise Ship Markets with live entertainment, market stalls and all-day dining.

Romantic retreat

After a day of exploration, travellers can choose from a wide range of accommodation in and around Port Lincoln, ranging from boutique stays to 4-star hotels such as the iconic Port Lincoln Hotel. Couples seeking a romantic escape can choose from accommodation that offers panoramic views of the bay such as Deco Beach Luxury Apartments, or an intimate off-grid retreat where you can reconnect with nature, such as Tanonga Luxury Eco Lodges. The friendly hosts add a personal touch to each stay, making visitors feel like cherished guests in this coastal paradise. With so many options on offer, the most difficult thing you'll need to do is make a choice!

Port Lincoln isn't just a destination, it's an experience. It provides an opportunity for relaxation, adventure and wildlife experiences like no other place on earth.
